Value Proposition

Novus Origo delivers strategy consulting services designed to help our clients take their vision and business to the next level. Whether your company is looking to expand operations or refocus on fewer core capabilities, grow revenues and increase profitability, undergoing a merger or acquisition, or redesigning process and operations, our proven methodologies focus on the critical dimensions of your business strategy and are designed to help you organization succeed. No firm can match how we tailor our value proposition to the special needs of our clients.

How We Deliver Strategy Consulting Services

Our teams of highly experienced professionals work with clients to build an executable strategy for taking our clients' business to the next level, by working side by side with them as a partner to get it done. Unlike other strategy consultants, we support our advisory teams with our proven methodology, best practices, and tools built for Middle Market and government agencies. For us a successful strategy project is not a leather-bound report or a power point deck, instead we roll up our sleeves to help our clients succeed by tackling their toughest challenges.

Leadership Team

Paul Cevolani, CEO, and Olen Pepple, COO, both have in-depth experience delivering highly specialized business advisory services for Middle Market companies, government agencies, and service providers including Accenture, AAA, ServiceSource, AlphaStaff, and the US Navy.

Relevant Experience

The Novus Origo team brings over 50 years of hands-on experience successfully planning and delivering many major national and international projects. Successful projects include:

Strategy Consulting - The client, a leader in the service revenue performance industry, made the strategic decision to build and implement a scalable delivery model on a global level. Novus Origo defined & developed the strategy, approach, & methodologies required to successfully implement service on a scalable global model.

Strategy Consulting - The client, a global leader in the consumer electronics and technology products industry, was looking for ways to reduce costs, standardize services, and redefine the organizational model for their HR organization. Novus Origo worked with the client to define an alternative service delivery model which would standardize global HR services, while also reducing operations costs and improving efficiencies throughout the entire HR organization.

Novus Origo is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) and Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBE).
